At a meeting on 27 July 1949 pao chia leaders were instructed by a political worker that they must inform all their people that it is not true that the Communist troops would leave the Tsingtao area on 3 August as rumored. He explained that the rumor had been started by leaflets dropped by air* and that no denial had been published in the papers, as such a denial would give credence to the rumor.

25X1A * Comment. reports that on 16 July Nationalist 25X1A planes dropped leaflets which say that the Nationalists will return by September first.

25X1A Comment. This affair seems to be giving concern among high level Communist leaders in the Tsingtao area.
